9 July 1963

Captain T. B. Brown, Commanding Troop B, State Highway Patrol, Fayetteville, advised this office that on 9 July 1963 approximately 50 persons participated in a demonstration in Fayetteville in the afternoon with no violence or arrests. At 7:45 PM, approximately 75 persons demonstrated for about two hours, during which time 12 persons were arrested for trespassing. There was no violence. There were approximately 20 demonstrators, 2 of which were white, carrying signs stating "We have integrated at Fort Bragg, why not Fayetteville". These demonstrators were also singing in the usual manner, and were believed to be military personnel from Fort Bragg. All were dressed in civilian clothes.

Following this demonstration, they assembled at City Hall for about twenty minutes singing songs and chanting. They then proceeded to a church at Haymont Hill.
